Squirrels and other Fur-Bearers

Squirrels and other Fur-Bearers
By John Burroughs (1837-1921)

Squirrels and other Fur-Bearers, a collection of essays by American naturalist and essayist, John Burroughs, provides fascinating insight into the daily life of small woodland creatures. Included in these essays are Burroughs's personal observations of squirrels, rabbits, mink, and chipmunks, as well as numerous other small mammals. Highly recommended for anyone, both young and old, with an interest in nature and wildlife! (summary by Laura Caldwell)
